COMMUNICABLE DISEASE ORDER

To: All Licensed Premises as defined in the Liquor Act and Liquor Regulations operating in all Nunavut communities

All food service establishments operating in all Nunavut communities

1. The undersigned has reasonable grounds to believe that:
 - a. A communicable disease exists or may exist or that there is an immediate risk of an outbreak of a communicable disease, specifically novel coronavirus COVID-19;
 - b. This communicable disease presents a risk to public health;
 - c. This order is necessary to prevent, eliminate, remedy, or mitigate the risk to public health.
2. On March 20, 2020, the Minister of Health declared a public health emergency in Nunavut due to the risk to public health resulting from novel coronavirus COVID-19.
3. Based on this declaration, the undersigned has dispensed with the notice provisions in the Public Health Administrative Regulations due to exigent circumstances.
4. Pursuant to paragraph 55 (4) of the Public Health Act, the undersigned orders:
 - a. That all Licensed Premises shall close immediately and until further notice;
 - b. The owner may enter for the purposes of monitoring the premises;
 - c. Any persons present must have sufficient space to be at least two (2) meters apart while they are in the space;
 - d. Holders of Dining Room Licenses and food service establishments may continue to operate restaurants for delivery and take-out only. The bar section of the premises must be closed.
 - e. Where a facility is open for take-out, there shall be no more than ten (10) people in a line-up at any given time.
